We're pleased to offer USDA inspected lamb cuts for sale. Our lambs are born and raised on our farm in Newberg, Oregon, USA. Their diet consists solely of pasture grass and locally raised grass and alfalfa hay. They don't receive grain and they are never given growth hormones or antibiotics.

Both Jacob and Navajo-Churro sheep produce lean, mild tasting cuts of meat. Our lambs are processed at Mt. Angel Meat Company, an animal welfare approved, USDA inspected facility located in nearby Mt. Angel, Oregon, where the meat is aged for 7 to 10 days before being cut.
